

21 Ways to get all Your People Involved in the Community Mural

We have witnessed churches engage their people in these 21 ways with great success and we are excited to pass them along to you.

In addition to announcing all Open-Painting Times when anyone can show up to paint, add these fun, energizing, laughter-filled designated painting times in the mix:

- 1. Pizza and Painting Night
- 2. Food, Games, and Painting Rotation during Confirmation Event
- 3. Popcorn and Paint
- 4. After-School Open Painting Times - invite a friend
- 5. Family Painting Night - families could sign-up for time slots
- 6. Quilters Group
- 7. Church Council
- 8. Church Choir
- 9. Sunday Afternoon Football Painting Party
- 10. Men's Groups
- 11. Women's Groups
- 12. Immediately After Worship Painting Invite with Coffee, Snacks or Brunch
- 13. Sunday School
- 14. 70+ Painterly Group (or 65+, 75+, 80+, etc.)
- 15. Grandparents and Grandkids Paint Brush Bonding Time
- 16. Mentors/Mentees
- 17. Church Staff Painting Time
- 18. Bible Study Groups
- 19. Church Use Groups
- 20. Community Groups
- 21. Neighboring Churches Come and Paint